

Table 2: Satisfactory questionnaire completed by 24 students.

	YES	NO
1. Did you know what a portfolio was?		24
2. If yes, had you ever used one before this session?		24
3. After the first presentation, were you interested in building one up?	10	14
4. Was it difficult for you to choose a subject?	24
5. What, in your opinion, were the most difficult aspects of this work?
a. Gathering paper data	2	22
b. Collecting information on the internet	16	8
c. Classify all the data gathered	20	4
d. Choosing a « resource person »	18	6
e. Formulating and laying on paper the questions you asked yourselves and which motivated your researches	24
f. Writing out the interview reports you had with the tutor	24
6. Did the recurrent meetings with the tutor concretely guide you?	24
7. Did the PF allow you to improve:
a. Your theoretical knowledge	20	4
b. Your needs in terms of future professional practice	12	12
c. Your ability in selecting relevant information	24
8. In your opinion, is the PF a good learning tool?	24
9. In your opinion was it useful to present your PF in front of the medical staff? <sup>a</sup>	18	0
10. Did you find your colleagues' presentations interesting for you?	24
11. Would you be interested in doing a PF in your next session? <sup>b</sup>	16	4
12. In your opinion, is the PF a good assessment tool?	14	10

<sup>a</sup>: the first 6 students are not concerned by this item, they presented their PF in front of the tutor.

<sup>b</sup>: this item only affects 20 students, the remaining 4 were in their last training session.